UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

KIMBERLY K. TONEY

Kimberly K. Toney, a member of the Senior Executive Service, is Executive Director, Air Force Personnel Center, Joint Base San Antonio – Randolph, Texas. AFPC ensures commanders around the world have the right number of skilled Air Force personnel to conduct the mission. The center executes programs covering the entire life cycle of military and civilian personnel for the Air Force, from accession through retirement, including readiness, growth, development and deployment. AFPC's diverse workforce, with 5 subordinate units, has approximately 2,500 Air Force military, civilian and contractor personnel responsible for worldwide operations for 1.7 million total force Airmen, retirees and family members.

Ms. Toney received her commission in 1985 as an Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps distinguished graduate from Louisiana Tech University. She commanded at squadron, group, and wing levels, including the 501st Combat Support Wing at Royal Air Force Alconbury, England. Ms. Toney also held staff positions at Headquarters Air Force Recruiting Service, Headquarters Air Force, and United States Southern Command in Miami, Florida. She retired from active duty in the grade of Colonel and was appointed to the Senior Executive Service Aug. 10, 2015. Prior to her current position, Ms. Toney was Director of Personnel Operations at AFPC, where she was responsible for effective and efficient delivery of A1 Human Resource Management programs impacting 69,000 officers, 260,000 enlisted, and 180,000 Air Force Civil Service members across the Air Force with the least expenditure of resources and best possible customer service. Ms. Toney assumed her current position October 2016.
